Tell Eddie that I'm very sorry!

Dear Jerry,
"Doe"

I hope that you will always think the good of me.
I'm very glad we had our time to spend with each other. Even though we had our fights, don't ever think that I didn't love you!
When I used to say it, I really meant it. I just hope that you can believe me.
Borne a favor and tell Eddie that I'm sorry about taking his space. If I have hurt you I am very sorry. I'm real glad that we can still be friends. Although we didn't talk right away after we broke up, I wanted to. I hope you can forgive me & believe that I hurted just as much as you did. I never meant to hurt you! Have a great summer!! All I can say is that I hope you find someone to love & someone to love you in a way that I couldn't.
Please, be confident and try to trust them in the way that you trusted me.
Don't give up that easy because you really, really, really deserve it! You will always be a special part of me even though I don't show it enough. Don't forget your friend (hopefully) that cares for you always.
Good Luck!!
I still do love you!!
Remember that Billie
(The dog)
only you can call me that!

Dear Jerry,

Well what can I say! I'm really glad I got to know you better this year!

I owe you so much thanks for helping me w/ you know who! You really helped me alot, and I will always be grateful, even though it didn't work out (his lost!) I always wish you nothing but the best, cause you deserve it! Remember if ever you need someone to talk to I'm here! And you got my number.

Stay cool & give me a call once in awhile in the summer!

There is the known and the unknown

Doors . . .

Okay Mrs. Lando,

What can I wish for you?! Get me see?! I wish you FAME (not too much or else your head will be in cloud 9), FORTUNE (not too much or else you'll have a lot of B.I.L.L.S.), and much, much success!!

Mrs. Lando, you possess a heart of gold that can never be replaced, nor can ever be found in any other person! You've taught me and these past 3 years and I appreciate it. I only wish we didn't have to go through the hardships, but that's life!! I'll never forget how you used to blame me for punching you (you know where!) when it was your other friends! (smile)

Remember my smile!
du! du! du!

Good luck in your senior year!

Take good care of yourself and when you write, you write me back.

Yours Truly, and LOVING you always and forever...

If you can only find the key,
There are endless possibilities . . .

Dear Jerry,
 You are great! We had lots of fun during chemistry class. I was so impressed by you. I hope to see you next year. What more can I say but you are the best. Love you always,
 Susan Morabito
 P.S. hope to follow you into the bathroom next year.

A freshman — no one can dispute
That they are awfully cute

Once they were the leaders of the pack
Now they are at the bottom of the stack

They must slowly climb the ladder again
The ladder filled with brightness and some pain.

But they will not complain nor fret
For they know they will be seniors yet

SOPHOMORES

A sophomore is often said to be much like an owl — wise and true

Yet as an owl exclaims: "Whoow Whoow" So sophomores wonder what they should do

Yes, it is a confusing year
Not without its joy and its tear

Sophomores are like seeds beginning to sprout
They will go far there is no doubt

They are growing together like a forest of trees Like ivy leaves to many friendship they will cleave.

As Juniors we are firmly ensconced in our lair Secure in the knowledge that our friends are there.

Everyone says we know the ropes
It's true — we do, and we've set our hopes.

We've learned to listen, to give, to share.
We expect a lot because we care.

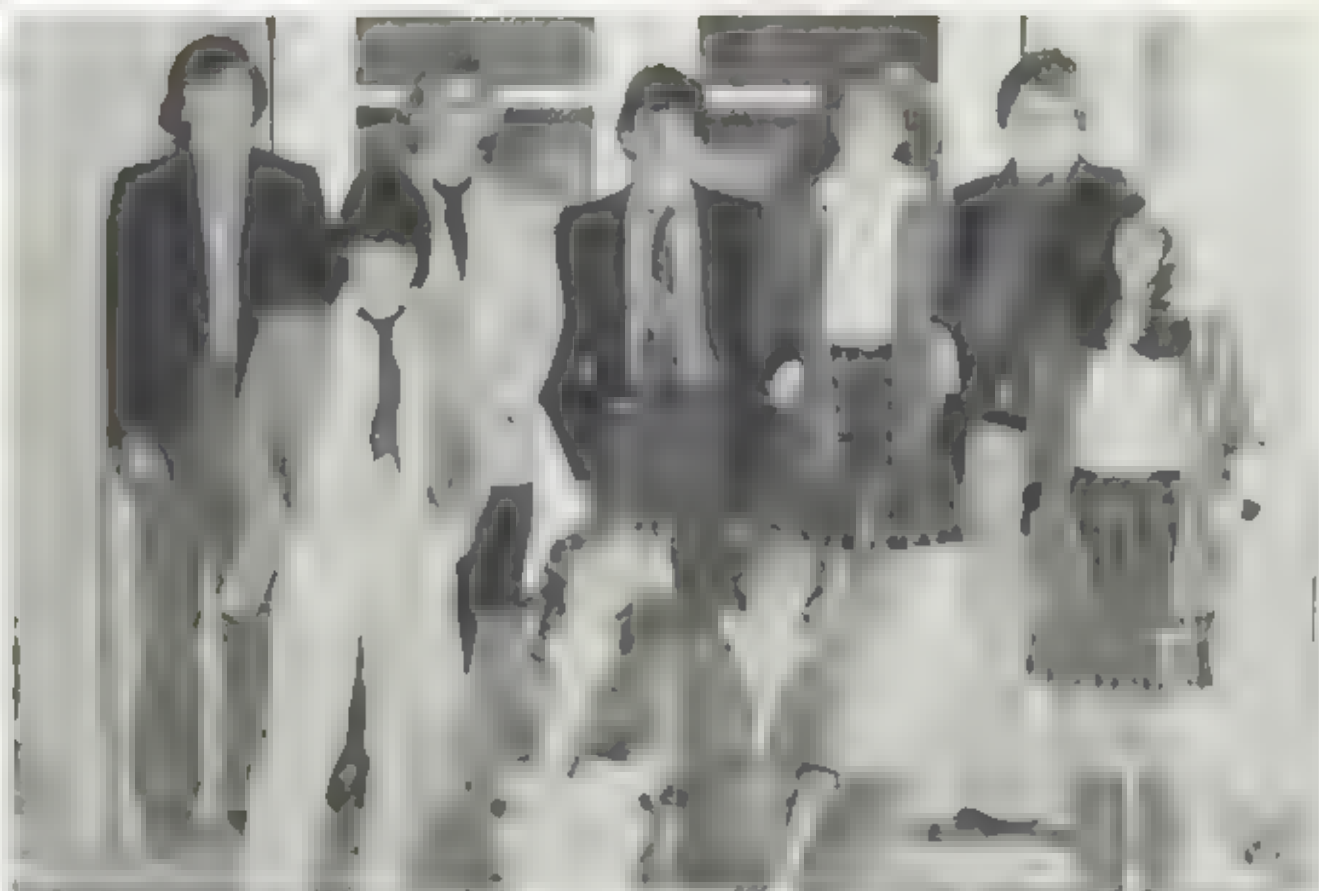

Our judgment has matured and we've become wise
And in the midst of the year our spirits will rise.

We know the scope of all things big and small For we are juniors after all.

I can hardly believe that the many months of work, which fill the pages of this book, are over. The long hours the staff spent looking through pictures, planning layouts and searching for appropriate words to express our ideas, are all past us now. I will never forget the laughter, confusion, satisfaction and friendships that were shared by everyone.

In ending this yearbook, I would like to acknowledge and to express my deepest thanks to the many individuals who helped make this book possible. My appreciation to

Dale Alger, our yearbook representative, for his time, guidance, and friendship

The photographers of Lorstan Thomas for their high-quality photography

Miss O'Keefe for her financial expertise

The entire Yearbook Staff for their time, patience, and creativity. It was an honor and a privilege to work with you.

Sister Ann Engenbauer and Sister Jane Tyler for their advice, help, and long hours of dedicated work.

kinds,

Finally it's time for me to leave this place
I'm really gonna miss it, but most of all I'm gonna miss all the good friends, like you, that I'll leave behind.

You've really meant a lot to me over these 3 years. Even though we always chocked around & never really did any really serious talking, I always knew that if the time would come when I did need someone, I could talk to you.

I hope I see you over the Summer! This isn't a goodbye. Call me up anytime (828-2084) just to say Hello or you need a friend. I'm always around to lend a sympathetic ear or make special friends laugh when they need some cheering up.

I'll really miss you & never forget you.
I hope next year is as great for you as it was for me. Make it last & make it your best. Good Luck in the future &

Always. Strive for the best

You deserve it!!!

Love Ya A lot,
Diana
